Nominees should have spent the majority of their careers in Catholic health care. Nominees may or may not be retired.

SUBMISSION DEADLINE:
January 31, 2017

Catholic health care in Canada has been blessed with a legacy of faithful leaders whose dedication throughout their careers has built the ministry and ultimately brought care and healing to persons and communities.

The Lifetime Achievement Award annually recognizes one such leader. This award will be conferred on a leader who has inspired and mentored numerous others in Catholic health care and whose accomplishments, over the course of a career, have strengthened the ministry. Her or his leadership extends past the Catholic health ministry to influence and impact the local community and beyond.

The recipient will be presented with the Lifetime Achievement Award at the 2017 Catholic Health Care Conference, May 10 to May 12, Charlottetown, PEI. The Catholic Health Alliance of Canada will pay travel and expenses for the recipient to attend the conference and accept the award.

to complete the online nomination form.

Nominees must be currently serving in a Catholic health care organization. Nominees must be 50 years of age or younger and have worked at least five years in Catholic health care.

SUBMISSION DEADLINE:

The Midcareer Leadership Award is given to young leaders who have already made significant contributions to the ministry and who, through their leadership, provided prophetic witness to the mission of Catholic health care.

Strong leadership is needed now and for the future of the Catholic health ministry. The Midcareer Leadership Award is intended to inspire talented leaders to continue their service in Catholic health care, thereby contributing to a promising future for the ministry and the people it serves. The award will be given to a person who has demonstrated outstanding leadership in her or his organization and significant growth as a leader in the ministry.

The recipient will be presented with the Midcareer Leadership Award during the 2017 Catholic health care conference, May 10 to May 12, in Charlottetown, PEI. The Catholic Health Alliance of Canada will pay travel and expenses for the recipient to attend the conference and accept the award.
