

Announcement

The Alberta Catholic Health Corporation (ACHC) is pleased to announce that Mr. Stephen Hill will be joining the staff of the Corporation in the role of Mission Integration Director.

Stephen's background includes his most recent work as Director of Pastoral Care at Hotel Dieu Hospital in Kingston ON. Prior to his work there, Stephen was the Director of retreat and spirituality centres with the Sisters of Providence in Kingston, the Loyola Jesuit Renewal Centre in Portland Oregon and Trappers' Lake in Yellowknife NWT. He was also a teacher early in his career. Stephen has Bachelor degrees in Arts, Education and Sacred Theology and a Masters of Divinity. His education and experience provide him with unique preparation for this important work with the ACHC.

Accountable to the Chief Executive Officer, Stephen will play a key role with the Corporation through the development of resources and programs to support and enhance the Catholic identity, mission and values of the ACHC and its sponsored organizations.

Stephen will be joining the ACHC by September 1, 2004. Along with his wife and son, he will be moving to Edmonton from Kingston this summer.

An orientation schedule will be developed later this summer which will include visits to each ACHC-sponsored organization.

For more information on this appointment, please contact Michael Shea, Chief Executive Officer, Alberta Catholic Health Corporation at (780) 481-9900.
