Alma Mater to her Daughters, Greeting!

*Afar, and yet afar from me they've gone,—
To torrid clime, to northern haunts they've flown:
They bear aloft St. Joseph's banner pure,
They've learned to spend themselves, and to endure;
The tasks that I have taught, they fearless ply,
"Non Nobis Solum" is their constant cry.*

The School Song

With clasp of hand and with a friendly greeting,
O, come and join in festive song,
This joyous hour—tho' joy is ever fleeting—
This hour we will remember long.
We pledge anew our fond devotion,
We pledge our loyalty sincere;
We will be true to thee, St. Joseph's,
Thy name to us shall ever be most dear.
What though in future years, our paths divided,
We wander far from this loved home,
Yet every one, in mind and heart united,
Thy honour e'er will be our own.

The Most Reverend James M. Hill, D. D.
Bishop of Victoria

Reverend Mother Mary Angelus, S.S.A.
Provincial Superior

Dear Members of Saint Joseph's Alumnae:

With sentiments of great satisfaction and joy, Alma Mater bids you heartfelt welcome to this sixtieth anniversary reunion.

It is good to pause a moment at such a mile-stone, to ponder over what is past and to take a new look at the future, but, most of all to live again the hopes and ambitions of earlier days, and, by mutual association and revived interest, enjoy the several events of the "home-coming" programme in the spirit that strengthens the ties that bind, in loyalty and esteem, all members of the Alumnae to their dear Alma Mater whose love remains as ever - and who now reminds you of this love - "Lest We Forget!" -- Lest any of us forget!

Reverend Sister Mary Ann Celesta, S.S.A.
Superior - Administrator
St. Joseph's Hospital

ON THIS SIXTIETH ANNIVERSARY:

As the rays of the Golden years of Saint Joseph's School of Nursing blend into the Diamond brilliance of the Sixtieth Anniversary, may God's choicest blessings be showered on all Saint Joseph's graduates
--those who "blazed the trail" and those who are now shouldering the burdens of TODAY, bearing ever aloft the banner of service

" NON NOBIS SOLUM! "

ALMA MATER WELCOMES HER DAUGHTERS

Closely associated in work and spirit with Saint Joseph's School of Nursing for over twenty-five years, Sister Mary Gregory was the centre of Home-coming rejoicing in 1950.

A decade has passed. Again, Sister is with us, radiating through the sincerity and joy of her welcome, the devotedness and affectionate regard of Alma Mater for her faithful alumnae, and her happy satisfaction in the programme prepared to draw her daughters about her, in joyous reunion, in this

The Rt. Rev. A.J. McLellan, D.P., Chaplain

Saint Joseph's Hospital and School of Nursing offer sincere congratulations to their esteemed Chaplain, on the occasion of his elevation to the rank of Domestic Prelate, by His Holiness, POPE JOHN XXIII.

Saint Joseph's Hospital - Main Lobby

TOAST TO SAINT JOSEPH'S:

We, members of Saint Joseph's Hospital School of Nursing Alumnae Association, welcome the opportunity of once again paying grateful tribute to our beloved ALMA MATER, and of congratulating her on the progress and development she achieves, as decade succeeds decade. We want the Sisters, the Doctors, the Nurses, the officers and workers in every department - the patients too - to know that we are most happy to assemble here, brightening our lamps of devotion from the flame of dedication that marks our school of nursing, and strengthening our loyalty, filial respect and love, by associating one with the other, under the aegis of our school and graduation motto-- "Not for Ourselves Alone!"

IN TRIBUTE TO OUR MEDICAL STAFF

No commemorative Souvenir of this Diamond Jubilee Reunion would be complete without a tribute of gratitude and appreciation to the devoted members of the Medical Profession whose interest, learning, professional skill and integrity, centred in and activated through the profession of healing, reaches out to us, Alumnae nurses, who at graduation, and many times since, have pledged to "assist the physician in his work!"

From the hospital too comes a special note of recognition and esteem to blend with that of Saint Joseph's School of Nursing, on this sixtieth anniversary. The two institutions, linked together as one, in hope and progress and aim, look confidently to the members of the Medical Profession with whom they are associated in the care of the sick, and in executive positions throughout the hospital, for the loyalty and interest that furthers the welfare and progress of the double institution, exteriorly, and for the competence and team-work that establishes a programme of effective functioning within - and in this they are not disappointed.

Therefore, as prayers are offered in thanksgiving, in this JUBILEE YEAR of the School of Nursing, Alma Mater summons her daughters to join in asking God to repay in His own measure, as no one else can, the devotedness and singleness of purpose exhibited by the members of our Medical Faculty in their everyday round of service to those in need, and in the sincerity and generosity with which they dedicate their skill, learning and experience to the general good of mankind, and the particular good of those associated with them in the exercise of their noble calling ---

TO THE GRADUATES OF 1960 IN THIS SIXTIETH YEAR

It is with something of a nostalgic feeling, a feeling filled with the yearnings of personal remembrance, that graduates of the past sixty years look upon the graduates of this sixtieth year and see in them a continuance of the long line of Saint Joseph's nurses. To these last has been lately entrusted, and through them to all that shall follow in years to come responsibility for the upholding of principles and traditions that have constituted the guiding spirit of the School of Nursing, over these many years.

Into their hands has been confided the "lamp" of devotedness. On their shoulders they wear the protective mantle of professional recognition; in their hearts there burns, we trust, the abiding charity of servants of Christ, and in their will, the determination to conquer ills in whatever manner they may have to be met.

A true nurse is a woman apart; she is a person dedicated to a special cause, so, as graduates of the past look upon those of today, the noble instinct of their sublime calling reaches out to embrace those who, newly crowned with success, with right to the coveted R.N., and with it the status and the responsibility which the nursing career signifies, are to be, henceforth, fellow members in Saint Joseph's Hospital School of Nursing Alumnae, and makes them ONE in their noble calling.

GREETINGS TO OUR ALUMNAE

We're proud to bid you welcome here,
Where loving memories twine
Around St. Joseph's honoured name
And days of Auld Lang Syne.

1st Chorus -

You're welcome here, you're welcome here!
Where grateful thoughts enshrine
Our dear St. Joseph's honoured names
And days of Auld Lang Syne.

You've won a place 'mid workers brave,
Unselfish is your aim:
"Not for ourselves, not for ourselves!"
The motto proud you claim.

2nd Chorus -

"Not for ourselves, not for ourselves,"
But for the Heart Divine!
That keeps, and will keep ever true,
As in days of Auld Lang Syne.

Florence Nightingale Pledge

"I solemnly pledge myself before God and in the presence of this assembly to pass my life in purity and to practice my profession faithfully. I will abstain from whatever is deleterious and mischievous and will not take, nor knowingly administer, any harmful drug. I will do all in my power to elevate the standard of my profession, and will hold in confidence all personal matters committed to my keeping, and all family affairs coming to my knowledge in the practice of my calling. With loyalty will I endeavour to aid the physician in his work and devote myself to the welfare of those committed to my care."
